Grinnell Man Dies in Crash

A Grinnell man was killed Saturday in a two-vehicle accident nine miles southeast of Grinnell on a gravel road.

Dead is 48-year-old Roy E. Weiland who was killed instantly when the car in which he was riding backed into the path of a milk truck driven by Wesley G. Vander Kroll, 22, of Sully. Driver of the car in which Weiland was killed was Fred L. Ashing Jr. of Grinnell.

According to Poweshiek County Sheriff Max Allen, who covered the accident with Deputy Sheriff Wayne Callison, the Ashing car had backed out of a farm driveway.

Vander Kroll is reported in satisfactory condition at Iowa Methodist Hospital in Des Moines, suffering from a fractured pelvis and minor internal injuries. Ashing was uninjured.

Damage to the two vehicles was estimated at $10,000, and charges of failure to yield the right-of-way were filed on Ashing. Weiland's death was the 10th traffic fatality in Poweshiek County so far this year.

The son of Arthur and Maude Vaughn Weiland, the victim was born Jan. 11, 1921, at Harrisburg, Ill. He received his education in the Harrisburg schools. For a number of years he lived in St. Louis, Mo., and later moved to Omaha, Neb. For the past two years he lived in Grinnell where he was employed at the Ahrens Manufacturing Co. He was a member of the Baptist Church in Harrisburg.

Mr. Weiland is survived by his wife Mary; a son, Roy Eugene Jr. of Texas; three daughters, Mrs. Shirley Tremmel of Linnwood, Wash., Mrs. Norma Sievers of Richland, Iowa, and Mrs. Katherine Provin of Grinnell; seven grandchildren and four brothers. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Funeral services for Mr. Weiland will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home, with the Rev. Hugh A. Shiveley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

Interment will be in the Ivy Hill Cemetery at Malcom.
