

Terry Wells rites conducted

H-R February 18, 1988
Terry Lynn Wells, 22, of Sully died Saturday, Feb. 13, of injuries he received in an automobile accident south of Grinnell.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Willis D. Thiessen of the Sully Community Church officiating. Organist was Alice Renaud. Pallbearers were Jon Brand, Lance Brand, Stan Hopwood, Greg Van Wyk, Reggy Wells, Blaine Wells and Brent Wells. Burial was in the Sully Cemetery.

The son of Harold and Margaret Shipman Wells, he was born on Feb. 2, 1966, in Oskaloosa. He lived with his family in Montezuma, Grinnell and Newton before moving to Sully in 1973. He graduated from Lynnville-Sully High School in 1984. Following his education he worked for Starsma Insulation of Pella, Brooklyn Hide and Fur, and the Grinnell Hy-Vee Food Store. He served in the Army Reserves.

Surviving are his parents, Harold and Margaret Shipman Wells of Sully; a brother, Timothy of Newton; two half-brothers, Harold Wells Jr. of Newton and Ronald Hynick of Oskaloosa; two half-sisters, Paulette Korn of Dallas, Ga., and Carlotta Kling of Fort Collins, Colo.; and his maternal grandmother, Opal Shipman of Oskaloosa.

He was preceded in death by a brother, David.