

Helen Westercamp

(FRED T.)

Helen M. Westercamp, 92, of 321 High St., Kellogg, died of a stroke Wednesday, Nov. 13, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Funeral services are scheduled for 11 a.m. Monday, Nov. 18, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Kellogg, with the Rev. Robert Waters officiating. Organist will be Gertrude Schnell, and pallbearers will be her grandchildren. Burial will be in White Oak Cemetery near Oskaloosa, with the Smith Funeral Home of Grinnell in charge of arrangements.

Friends may call at the funeral home beginning at noon Sunday. The family will be present from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday.

The daughter of Oscar and Estella Mac Ward McCurdy, she was born Feb. 12, 1904, near Oskaloosa. She was raised on the family farm and graduated from Oskaloosa High School. She attended William Penn College for two years.

On July 2, 1927, she was married to Fred T. Westercamp at Oskaloosa. The couple farmed near Newton. Mrs. Westercamp moved to Kellogg in 1970. She was active in Jasper County 4-H work and volunteerism in the Kellogg area. She was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Surviving are two sons, Kenneth of Frankenmuth, Mich., and Keith of Kellogg; two daughters, Joy Anderson and Kathleen Oliver, both of Kellogg; 14 grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and one sister, Leah Bass of Sigourney.

She was preceded in death by her parents; three grandchildren; three sisters, Edith McCurdy, Treva Gaston and Opal Fuhs; and three brothers, Clifford, Ralph and John McCurdy.

Memorial contributions in her name may be made to St. Paul's Lutheran Church, the Kellogg Ambulance Service or the Kellogg Historical Society.
