3-31-1922
Former Resident of This Vicinity Died
March 25 in Omaha

Arthur Scott White, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos White, was born March 27, 1865 in Kewanee, Ill., and departed this life in the Nicholas Senn hospital in Omaha, Nebr., March 25, 1922 of cancer, aged 56 years, 11 months and 28 days.

When about 14 years of age he moved with his parents to a farm near Kellogg, Iowa, where he grew to manhood.

September 10, 1885 he was united in marriage to Miss Lilly N. Irish and to their union were born five children, Harry A., Adelbert A., Ione V., Clifford A., and Reuben R.

The mother preceded him in death April 14, 1899 and the daughter, Ione February 10, 1899 and Adelbert, January 17, 1920. Mr. White has made his home with his son Clifford and wife.

December 20, 1921 he was united in marriage to Mrs. Sarah Hersom of Havelock, Iowa, who with the three sons, Harry A., of near Brooklyn, Clifford A., and Reuben R., of Riverton, Iowa, four grandsons, two sisters, Mrs. Hattie Craven of Kellogg, Iowa, and Mrs. Lucy Reno of Long Beach, California and one brother A. A. White of near Grinnell besides a host of other relatives and friends mourn his departure. Mr. White had apparently been in good health until about eight weeks before his death which came as a blessed release from the severe pain and suffering that seemed more than he could bear. He said he was ready to go but would like to have stayed longer with his dear ones. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Lowe, of the Christian church of Kellogg, Iowa. Interment in Kellogg cemetery.
