

Kevin J. White, 43 <sup>BC</sup> <sup>Sept 12, 2001</sup>

Kevin J. White, 43, of San Diego, Calif., formerly of Iowa, died Wed., Sept. 5 at the Continental Rehab Convalescent Hospital in San Diego.

Funeral Mass was Mon., Sept. 10, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Grinnell, with the Rev. William Reynolds officiating. Interment was in Calvary Cemetery, Brooklyn. Pallbearers were Mike Vogel, Brian White, Justin White, Travis White, Greg Jansen, Charlie Starbuck, Tony Starbuck and Jeff Vogel. Honorary pallbearers were Laurie Jansen, Julie Vogel, Lindy Karsten, Lori Vogel, Megan Starbuck, Mindy Starbuck, Jessica White and Sarah White. Memorials are suggested to the American Diabetes Association and American Heart Association.

Kevin was born July 14, 1958, in Grinnell, the son of Floyd "Bud" and Katherine (Varnum) White. He spent his childhood in Malcom and graduated in 1976 from Nevada High School. He earned a diploma in bookkeeping and accounting from Des Moines Area Community College in Boone, then worked several years in the business office at Story County Hospital.

In 1986, he earned a bachelor's degree in speech communications at Loras College, Dubuque. He then worked for three years for ARA Services, a food service company serving Bemidji State University in Bemidji, Minn., and the University of Minnesota-Marshall in Marshall, Minn. He moved in 1989 to Des Moines, where he was employed in the operations department at Paine Webber. Kevin moved with the company in 1993 to Omaha and then in 1994 to San Diego. He was a senior cashier at Paine Webber's downtown San Diego branch at the time of his death.

He enjoyed warm weather and attending cultural events in San Diego. He also loved photography, music and cooking.

Survivors include his parents of Grinnell; two sisters, Rita (Larry) Vogel of Malcom and Helen (Douglas) Starbuck of Nevada; two brothers, Jim (Marcia) White and Pat (Wanda) White, both of Grinnell; and many nieces and nephews.

Kevin J. White

Kevin J. White, 43, of San Diego, Calif., a native of Grinnell, died Wednesday, Sept. 5, at Continental Rehab Convalescent Hospital in San Diego.

The Funeral Mass was celebrated Monday at St. Mary's Catholic Church, with the Rev. Fr. William Reynolds officiating. Pianist was Marilyn Kriegel, and cantor was Brett Elliott.

Pallbearers were Greg Jansen; Charlie and Tony Starbuck; Jeff and Mike Vogel; and Brian, Justin and Travis White. Honorary bearers were Laurie Jansen, Lindy Karsten, Megan and Mindy Starbuck, Julie and Lori Vogel, and Jessica and Sarah White.

Interment was at Calvary Cemetery, Brooklyn, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

He was the son of Floyd "Bud" and Katherine Varnum White and was born July 14, 1958, in Grinnell. He spent his childhood in Malcom and moved to Nevada, Iowa, in 1971. He was a 1976 graduate of Nevada High School and received a diploma in bookkeeping and accounting from Des Moines Area Community College in 1978.

He was employed at Story County Hospital for several years in the business office. In 1986, he received a B.A. degree in speech communications from Loras College, Dubuque. He then worked for three years for ARA Services, a food service company for college dining services at Minnesota State Universities in Bemidji and Marshall.

In 1989, he moved to Des Moines where he was employed in the operations department at Paine Webber. He moved with the company to Omaha, Neb., in 1993 and to San Diego in 1994. Most recently, he was senior cashier in Paine Webber's downtown San Diego branch.

Surviving are his parents; two brothers, Jim and Pat, both of Grinnell; and two sisters, Rita Vogel of Malcom and Helen Starbuck of Nevada.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents and one brother, Francis.

Memorial contributions may be directed to the American Diabetes Association or the American Heart Association.