FREDERICK WICHMAN

Frederick Wichman was born in Oldenberg, Germany, October 11th, 1866, and died at Iowa City, Dec. 11th, 1919. Mr. Wichman emigrated to this country in May, 1883, and has since resided in and near this city. He was a member of the Lutheran church. Mr. Wichman leaves to mourn his untimely departure an aged mother, one brother and one sister in Germany, besides two brothers in this country, Dietrich, of Ruthsen, Pa., and Henry of Pender, Nebraska. One brother was killed in France during the recent war. He was a member of the local order I. O. O. F. lodge which had charge of the funeral services held from the Presbyterian church in this city last Sunday, Rev. Mr. Aukerman officiating. Interment was in Ivy Hill cemetery.—Malcon Leader.
