

Melvin Wiebold

Melvin E. Wiebold, 67, of 1533 Prairie St., Grinnell, died of cancer Wednesday, April 19, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday morning at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. David T. Brandt, pastor of Immanuel Lutheran Church, officiating. Organist was Esther Huedepohl.

Pallbearers were John Anderson, Wayne Hasselbrink, Roger Pederson, Norman Schroeder, James White and Gene Zell. Honorary bearers were George Berry, Jack Douglas, Bill Logan, Warren Miller, Earl Reedy and Jim Robinson. Burial was in Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom.

Memorial contributions in Mr. Wiebold's name may be made to the Elks Lodge Building Fund.

The son of Arnold and Elsie Jane Pegum Wiebold, he was born Sept. 4, 1927, in Marengo. He was raised at Homestead and later moved to Toledo where he attended school. Following his education, he farmed near Toledo and moved to Cedar Rapids.

He was married to Carmen N. Reedy Dec. 6, 1952, in Cedar Rapids. They lived near Toddville and moved to Grinnell in February 1955. While living in the Grinnell area he worked for Swift and Company, farmed, worked for the city of Grinnell and, prior to retirement, worked as a sales representative for Double D Feed Co. He was a member of the Elks and Eagles lodges.

Surviving are his wife; two sons, Steven of Jefferson City, Mo., and Bryan of Pensacola, Fla.; five grandchildren; and one brother, Marilyn Wiebold of Omaha, Neb. He was preceded in death by his parents; one son, Brett; and one brother, Russell.

Melvin Wiebold

Melvin E. Wiebold, 67, of Grinnell died April 19 at Grinnell Hospital.

Services were held April 22 at Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell with the Rev. David T. Brandt, pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran Church of Grinnell, officiating. Organist was Mrs. Esther Huedepohl. Casket bearers were John Anderson, Wayne Hasselbrink, Roger Pederson, Norman Schroeder, James White and Gene Zell. Honorary bearers were George Berry, Jack Douglas, Bill Logan, Warren Miller, Earl Reedy, and Jim Robison. Burial was in Ivy Hill Cemetery at Malcom. Memorials may be made to the Elks Lodge Building Fund.

The son of Arnold and Elsie Jane Pegum Wiebold, he was born Sept. 4, 1927 at Marengo. He was reared at Homestead and later moved to Toledo, where he attended school. Following his education, he farmed near Toledo and moved to Cedar Rapids.

On Dec. 6, 1952, he was married to Carmen N. Reedy at Cedar Rapids. The couple lived near Toddville and moved to Grinnell in February of 1955. While living in the Grinnell area, he worked for Swift and Company, farmed, worked for the City of Grinnell, and prior to retirement he worked as a sales representative for Double D Feed Company.

He was a member of the Elks Lodge and the Eagle Lodge, both of Grinnell.

He is survived by his wife, Carmen Wiebold of Grinnell; two sons, Steven Wiebold of Jefferson City, Mo. and Bryan Wiebold of Pensacola, Fla.; five grandchildren; and one brother, Marilyn Wiebold of Omaha, Neb.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one son, Brett; and one brother, Russell W. Wiebold.

H-R April 24, 1995

April 26, 1995