Mabel Claire Wiley.

MS
Mabel Claire Wiley was born in Malcom, Iowa, August 17, 1888, and died November 13, 1908, aged twenty years, two months and twenty-six days. She was taken ill on November second with tonsillitis and on Friday last a complication of diseases set in, and she passed to the Great Beyond at five minutes to nine p.m. She was buried Sunday, November fifteenth, at Malcom cemetery. Deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church and Christian Endeavor and sang in the church choir. She was also a member of the Rebecca lodge. She will be greatly missed, as she was a great church worker, and beloved by everyone who knew her. The Rev. A. F. Eldridge conducted the funeral services, which were of a very impressive character. The pall bearers were six members of the Odd Fellows. Six sisters of the Rebecca order were honorary pall bearers.

Miss Wiley graduated from the Malcom high school in 1907 with the highest honors in the class, and taught school till October 31st. Those who knew her knew her to be a good, pure, Christian girl. Christ will gather her in with His own.
