

10-16-87

BC

DEWEY DALE WILFONG

Dewey Dale Wilfong, 62, died Friday night, Oct. 16, 1987, from injuries received in a traffic accident near Dallas, Tex. He was a self-employed welder and had been employed previously by the city of Toledo and was a former police chief of the Toledo Police Department.

Survivors include his wife, Shirley; a son, Dewey Wilfong, Jr., of Chelsea; three stepsons, Craig Howe of Tama, Greg Howe of Toledo, and Timothy Howe of Enid, Okla.; three daughters, Tonya Gaydos of Toledo, Billee Jean Waterbeck of Brooklyn, Iowa, and Crystal Kasal of Chelsea; three stepdaughters, Shirlene Spinler of Chelsea, Theresa Catron of Garwin, and Starla Howe of Enid, Okla.; a brother, Andrew Wilfong of Tomball, Tex.; a half-brother, Ernest Wilfong of Omaha, Neb.; a sister, Ruby Freet of rural Garwin; a half-sister, Alberta Wilfong of Georgia; five grandchildren and seven stepgrandchildren.

Services were at 1:30 p.m., Tuesday, at Mason-Hand's, Tama. Burial was in Oak Hill Cemetery, Tama, with military rites by the Chelsea American Legion Post.