

Mrs. Willett's Rites Conducted Sunday

(PERRY)

Mrs. Florence Willett, 74, a lifelong resident of this community, died last Thursday at her home in Brooklyn.

Neighbors of Mrs. Willett became alarmed last Thursday when they failed to see her about the house and yard. Following investigation, her body was discovered shortly after noon. Mrs. Willett had been in failing health for several months.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at Bramer Funeral home in charge of the Rev. C. W. Woollard, pastor of Grace Methodist church. Leo Shuler was organist.

Interment was in I.O.O.F. cemetery with Harold McMullin, Kenneth Fraker, Harley Burch, Kenneth Tish, Homer Ryan and James Doonan serving as pallbearers. In charge of flowers were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gross, Virginia Johnston and Mrs. Homer Ryan.

Florence E. Willett, daughter of Hattie and Samuel Robeson, was born January 14, 1889, in Madison township, Poweshiek county. She was married to Perry Willett Feb. 26, 1908, and one daughter, Frances, was born to the couple.

She was a member of the Methodist church and W.S.C.S., taking an active part in church activities as long as her health permitted. She was a 50-year member of the Brooklyn Rebekah lodge.

Survivors include her daughter, Mrs. Maynard (Frances) McLain of Brooklyn; two grandsons, Roger McLain of Annapolis, Md. and William McLain of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. and three great-grandchildren, Kurt, Kyle and Kaye McLain, all of Annapolis.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband and brother.
