Funeral Tomorrow For Mrs. Williams

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow (Friday) at the James-Schalinske funeral home for Mrs. George T. (Ina) Williams, 80, of Grinnell, who died Aug. 15, 1967.

The Rev. Newell E. Davis will officiate at the services and Mrs. Kathleen Heffner will be organist.

Burial will be in Cedar Memorial Park cemetery at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Stedman, Mrs. Williams was born at Emmetsburg, Iowa, on Sept. 15, 1886. She attended the Emmetsburg schools and was a teacher there.

On Sept. 15, 1908, Mrs. Williams was united in marriage with George T. Williams. In 1910 they moved to Cedar Rapids. During World War I, Mrs. Williams taught in the Cedar Rapids schools. They moved to Grinnell in 1940.

Mrs. Williams was a member of the United Church of Christ-Congregational, the Order of the Eastern Star, Chapter BM of PEO, and the Attawasias Club.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Sharp (Dorothy) Lannom III of Grinnell; four grandsons; two great-granddaughters; one great-grandson; and one brother, Charles Stedman of Emmetsburg.

Mrs. Williams was preceded in death by her parents; by her husband who died on March 14, 1960; and one sister, Maxine, who died in 1934.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Community Hospital building fund.
