Set Williams

rites for Nov. 1

Jessie Ewing Sage Williams, 83, of the Mayflower Home in Grinnell died Friday afternoon, Oct. 21, at the Mayflower Home Health Care Center.

Funeral services for Jessie Williams will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 1, at the Denison Chapel of the Mayflower Home, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad, minister of the Grinnell United Church of Christ-Congregational, officiating. Williams will be cremated and her ashes will be buried in Ames. Graveside services will be held at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 1, at the Iowa State University cemetery.

The daughter of William David and Virginia Heaton White Ewing, she was born on Feb. 12, 1894, in Topeka, Kan. She graduated from Bartlesville High School in Oklahoma, and attended the Indiana Normal School and Business College in Terre Haute.

On Aug. 4, 1915, she married James R. Sage. The couple moved to Ames, where he was a professor of mathematics and physics, and later registrar of the college. After Mr. Sage's death in November of 1951, she worked in the engineering extension office until 1959.

That year she moved to Grinnell. On Nov. 20, 1963, she married Roger A. Williams at the United Church of Christ-Congregational here. The couple moved to Waukesha, Wis., to make their home, returning some time later to live at the Mayflower Home.

She is survived by her husband and a step-son, Robert G. Williams of Waukesha. She was preceded in death by her first husband and a brother and sister, Harold Ewing and Pearl Bollinger.
