Wilson dies 1977

at 83 years

Leslie V. Wilson of Minneapolis, Minn., died recently at the age of 83. The death was the result of a short illness.

Funeral services for Leslie Wilson were held on Saturday, Jan. 8 at the United Methodist Church in Owatonna, Minn.

He was a graduate of Grinnell High School in 1912, and of Iowa State University in 1917, in the college of animal husbandry. For a number of years he did educational work in agriculture for the University of Minnesota. Before his retirement, the university put him in their "Hall of Fame" for his accomplishments in agricultural education and farm management.

He is survived by his wife, Laura; three daughters, Janet Gordon of York, Pa., Mary Ann Kedderhagen of Madison, Wis., and Nancy Gould of Minneapolis; and a sister, Grace Wilson of Grinnell.
