

Herald Register July 16, 1987

L. Max Wilson rites Thursday

L. Max Wilson, 79, of Des Moines, brother of J. Paul Wilson of Grinnell, died of a heart ailment Monday, July 13, at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Funeral services were conducted at 2:30 p.m. Thursday at the Immanuel United Methodist Church in Des Moines, with burial in Chapel Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Wilson had retired as terminal manager for the Western Transportation Co. He was a member of the Immanuel United Methodist Church, Auburn Lodge No. 592, the Garden Club of Des Moines and the Transportation Club of Iowa.

He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth; two sons, Lester W. of Ames and Donald M. of Des Moines; three daughters, Patricia D. Yeager and Judith A. Hoyt of Des Moines and Darlene K. Hammond of Omaha, Neb.; one brother, J. Paul of Grinnell; two sisters, Helen Bates of Indianola and Nola Masters of Newton; 17 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.