

H R August 21, 1980

Mr. Wisecarver rites Friday

Louis Wisecarver, 76, of 816 Ninth Ave., Grinnell, died early Wednesday at St. Francis Manor, following a stroke he suffered in June. Aug 20

Funeral services for Mr. Wisecarver will be conducted at 10 a.m. Friday at the Smith Funeral Home, with burial at Hazelwood Cemetery. Should friends desire, memorials in his name may be made to the Grinnell Historical Museum Society.

The son of Edward and Catherine Wisecarver, he was born Feb. 27, 1904, in Grinnell. He attended Grinnell schools. Mr. Wisecarver was an advertising executive for the former Grinnell Shopper and The Grinnell Herald-Register. He was a former member of the Elks Lodge and was active in bowling.

Survivors include two sisters, Bertha Bradish of Des Moines and Catherine Fortune of Pontiac, Mich. He was preceded by two brothers, Edward and George, and a sister, Kate.

Wisecarver rites held ^{H R} August 25 1980

Funeral services for Louis Wisecarver, 76, of Grinnell were held at 10 a.m. Friday at the Smith Funeral Home.

The Rev. Eugene Hoening of St. Bridget's Catholic Church in Victor officiated. Organist was Kathleen Heffner.

Pallbearers were John Breemer, John R. Parish, M.D., A.J. Pinder, Gary Tenney, Max Thompson and Tim Wozny.

Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.