

Edna Lehman Woollard

Funeral services were held January 20 at Malvern and Cumberland for Mrs. Edna Lehman Woollard. Her husband was the former pastor at the Grace Methodist church in Brooklyn until their move to Malvern.

Malvern services were held in the Methodist church of which Rev. Woollard is pastor. Rev. M. D. Summerbell and Rev. Lester C. Hall officiated at the service.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Edel Knight and Mrs. Allen Wortman. Pall bearers were LaVerne Obrecht, Max Dahner, Bernard Roenfeldt, Roy Davis, Emmett Grip and Howard Notson. Earl Bass and Kenneth Bowman were ushers and Mrs. Gail Cronkhite cared for the registry book.

Rites at Cumberland were also held in the Methodist church with Rev. H. D. Butts and Rev. Delbert Story assisting Rev. Summerbell.

Music was furnished by Linda and Renita Krumm of Brooklyn. Flower attendants were Mrs. Gail Becker, Mrs. Harley Weber and Mrs. George Riggs. Serving as pall bearers were Earl Schardein, Dean Bailey, William Riggs, Jerry Thompson, Clifford Bales and John Krumm.

Burial was in the Atlantic cemetery.

Edna LaBelle Lehman was born October 14, 1912, the daughter of Alvah W. and Myrtle Lehman on a farm south of Cumberland. She died at the age of 55, Jan. 18, at the Iowa Methodist hospital,

Des Moines, after a long illness.

She was educated in public schools of Cass county and graduated from Cumberland high school.

May 13, 1939, she was united in marriage to Rev. Clarence W. Woollard. They adopted one daughter, Karen.

Mrs. Woollard has served as district personnel secretary and Spiritual Life secretary for the WSCS and South Iowa conference, director of Children's Education for the district and was Dean of Women. She represented the conference at the national Spiritual Life conference in Nashville, Tenn., and the WSCS and Christian Education conferences in Albion, Mich. for several years.

She was preceded in death by her father. Survivors include her husband; a daughter, Karen, Mrs. John Bryant of Plano, Ill.; her mother, Mrs. Myrtle Lehman of Cumberland; three sisters, Mrs. Dale Symonds of Cumberland, Mrs. Howard Borth of Anita and Mrs. Alfred Edwards of Brooks; one brother, Maurice of Cumberland; three grandchildren, Belinda, Bruce and Brenda LaBelle.

(CLARENCE)