

OBITUARY

LEONARD C. WOOLLEN

H-R May 24, 1956

Leonard C. Woollen was born at Toledo, Ill., Jan. 18, 1899, the son of the late C. A. Woollen and Mae Brewer Woollen, who survives. He died suddenly Friday, May 18.

Mr. Woollen came to Grinnell with his family from St. Louis. He was owner and operator of a shoe store in Grinnell since 1945. He was prominent in Grinnell activities, being past president of the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary club and the Holy Name Society. He was also a member of the American Legion and the Elks lodge and had served as director of the Grinnell Community theater.

He is survived by his mother, his wife, Margaret; one daughter, Mrs. C. D. (Betty) Kaskie of Marshalltown; and a son, Robert L. of Madison, Wis.

Requiem high mass was conducted Monday, May 21, from St. Mary's Catholic church with Msgr. Paul D. Moore and the Rev. V. A. Walsh officiating. Pallbearers were Dr. John C.

DeMeulenaere, Charles P. Vogel, Don Cunningham, L. W. Brock, George Streit and Robert Kinsey. Burial was at Calvary cemetery in Grinnell.