

Acel Worley rites Saturday <sup>H-R March 9,</sup> 1981

Acel A. Worley, 81, of Grinnell died Wednesday evening, March 4, at St. Francis Manor.

Funeral services for Mr. Worley were conducted at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Harry H. Linnenbrink of St. Mary's Catholic Church officiating. Organist was Kathleen Heffner. Pallbearers were Claire Mithelman, Sherman Slifer, Dale Swatosh, Clayton Williams, Brian Worley and Joseph Worley. Burial was at Rose Hill Memorial Cemetery, Marshalltown.

The son of Milburn and Cora Burnley Worley, he was born Oct. 27, 1899, at Doniphan, Mo. He attended the Doniphan schools. He was married to Jessie Parks at Poynor, Mo.

Mr. Worley was employed as a trucker in Tama and later for the Nash-Finch Co. at Marshalltown as a truck driver. He came to Grinnell in 1941 and worked as a farmhand in the Grinnell and Gilman areas.

Mr. Worley had also been a gardener at St. Francis Manor.

Survivors include his son, George W. Worley of Marshalltown; five grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; and two sisters, Alpha Forrest of Oceanside, Calif., and Effie Boyle of St. James City, Fla. He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers and two sisters.