HUGH WORTHINGTON

(Contributed)

H-R 12-31-57

Hugh Worthington, son of George and Alice Worthington, was born March 15, 1879, at Grinnell, Iowa.

With the exception of a few years which he lived in Lewis, Iowa, Mr. Worthington spent his entire life in the Grinnell area. He dug many wells and was known for his tiling of land and plumbing work.

About five years ago his health failed to some degree. He moved to a Grinnell Rest Home where he had lived until he passed away last Thursday, October 17, 1957, past 78 years of age.

He is survived by one brother, Harold A. Worthington of Des Moines, and one cousin, Clyde Connelly of Grinnell, several neices and nephews, and his friends.

Funeral services were held Oct. 19, 1957 at the Smith funeral home. Music was furnished by Ed Bohstedt. Pallbearers were Harold A. Worthington, Hugh W. Worthington, Robert L. Worthington and Clyde F. Connelly. Burial was in Hazelwood cemetery.
