

Services Held For William A. Yost

Funeral services were held at St. Patrick's Catholic church Friday for William A. Yost, 65, owner of Bill's Chevrolet in Brooklyn for 17 years.

Mr. Yost died early Wednesday at a Grinnell hospital of complications following surgery.

Father John Kennedy officiated at the rites and burial was in Calvary cemetery.

Casket bearers were Lyle Nesselroad, Glen Stauffer, Wayne Bacon, Howard Heinen, Paul Paulson, Charles Van Kerckvoorde.

A native of Pennsylvania, Mr. Yost lived in Minneapolis and Des Moines before moving to Brooklyn. He was active in the automobile agency here until recent years when ill health limited his activities.

Survivors include his widow, Marya; a son, William of Aurora, Ill.; a daughter, Mrs. Sally Gates of Grinnell; two brothers, Charles of West Des Moines and Lawrence of Des Moines; three sisters, Mrs. Alice Diederich of Chippewa Falls, Wis., Mrs. Elizabeth Gray of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Mary Williams of West Des Moines, and four grandchildren.
