Mrs. Henry Zimmerman, 61, of Toledo, died suddenly about 3 p.m., Monday, Nov. 2, at the Vaughn Hulse home, where she was caring for the Hulses' two youngest sons.

Another son, David, 12, found Mrs. Zimmerman when he came home from school. Death was due to a coronary brought on by an acute asthma attack.

Born Hanna Johnson, May 27, 1898, near Scotts Grove, she was the daughter of George and Anna Englebarts Johnson. She received her education in the Ryan and Ewart schools.

On Feb. 4, 1920, she married Henry Zimmerman and they farmed near Malcom until 1938 when they moved to a farm near Gilman. After her husband's death in 1952, she moved close to Marshalltown and occupied a tenant house on the farm her son Marvin and family lived on, while there caring for elderly people in and around Marshalltown.

In 1955 she moved to Toledo, where she had built a new home and since resided.

Mrs. Zimmerman was a member of the St. Paul's Lutheran church in Tama. Although living in this community just a short time, Mrs. Zimmerman had made many friends and acquaintances. She had been employed by the Hulses as a baby sitter for the past four years.

Services were held Wednesday, Nov. 4, at 2 p.m. at St. Paul's Lutheran church with the Rev. A. F. Gertsman in charge. Burial was in Ivy Hill cemetery near Malcom.

Mrs. Zimmerman is survived by the son, Marvin, and a daughter, Mrs. George (Lucille) Hobbs, both of Toledo, and seven grandchildren; also two brothers and a sister, John E. Johnson of Tama and George Johnson of Grinnell, and Mrs. Fred (Anna) Zimmermann of Gilman.

Preceding her in death besides her husband were her parents and a son, Floyd Harold, in infancy.
