Guernsey Man Traffic Victim In Iowa County

A Guernsey man died Friday night in an Iowa county traffic accident about eight miles southeast of Victor.

Killed was Emil W. Zuber, 62, whose auto collided with a pick-up truck.

Hospitalized at Marengo with head and chest injuries was Harvey Wiedemeier, also of Guernsey, driver of the truck. His condition was last reported satisfactory.

Both men were alone in their vehicles.

Investigating officers said the accident occurred on a hill and that the Wiedemeier truck was pulling a farm wagon at the time
